

MOHAMMED EL HUSSEINY

STORYTELLER

I am an experienced storyteller for 12 years. I have been working internationally for many clients worldwide. The last of which is CGTN. Which has distributed my work around the world. Considering the ability to meet tight deadlines and perform effectively under pressure. I have also added my own visual style with experience in video editing, Along with my additional skills in creative color grading and motion graphic as well. That has contributed to raising the entire work to another level. On the other hand, I have my private clients in The USA with whom I work through my brand HUVIDEOS.COM. And finally in 2020, I have earned global certifications from Apple UK, and Blackmagic Design. for my proficiency in Post Production and color grading, Using Final Cut Pro X10.4 and Davinci Resolve as an expert.
